SANE FOURTH IS MAYOR'S EDICT

Herzog Instructs Police to Enforce Ordinance Curbing the Firing of High Explosives—
Many Will Go to Lakes.

As has been the custom for the past several years the edict has gone out from headquarters that there is to be a sane observance of the nation's birthday in Mishawaka. Mayor Herzog has taken a decided stand against any rowdy or dangerous celebration of the Fourth. This is especially true in the vicinity of the hospital where on account of the illness of the many patients, quiet is a necessity. The mayor has ordered the police department to strictly enforce the ordinance which applies to the firing of dynamite crackers and other high explosives and which especially forbids shooting crackers within a certain distance of the hospital.

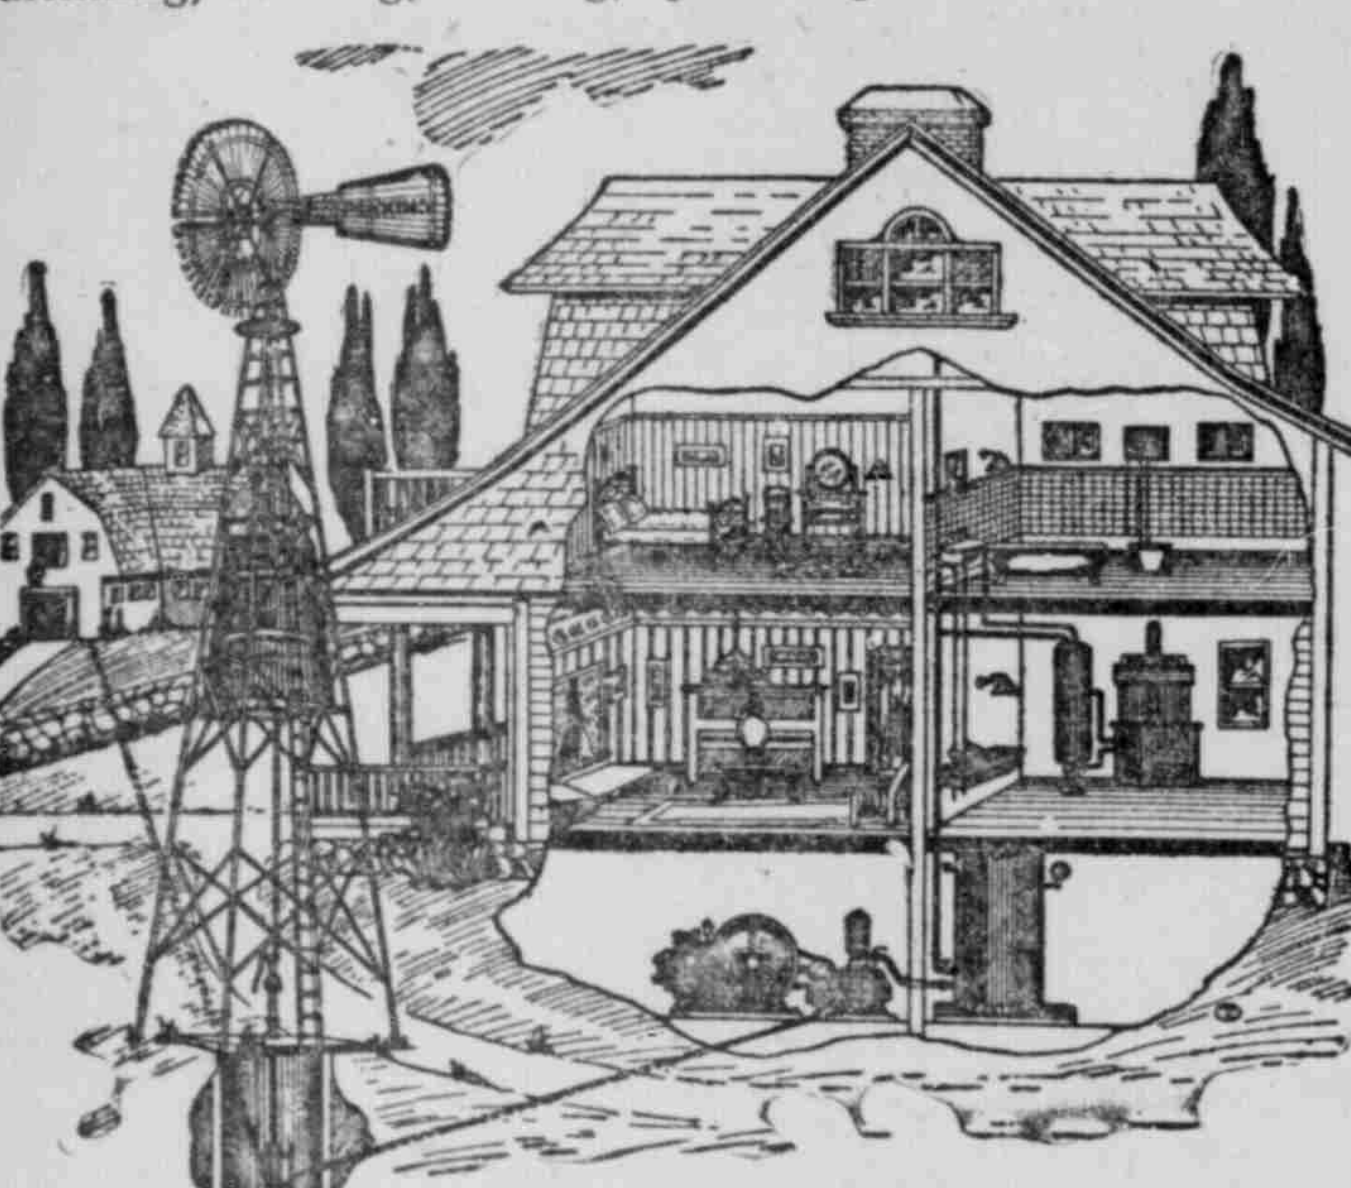

The police will carry out the order to the letter as they have in the past and as far as Mishawaka is concerned there will be no loud celebration. Last year the city was notably quiet on the Fourth, great numbers leaving town for cooler spots and those staying at home being content with the harmless "sparkler" or "roman candle," varied occasionally by the more reckless with the sky rocket.

There have been few serious accidents in this city on account of a reckless observance of the Fourth and the city administration is determined to keep down the casualty list.

Local dealers in fireworks report a falling off in demand for the high explosives and the large size "cannon crackers" and state that there is an ever increasing demand for the more beautiful and less dangerous evening fireworks.

Pure Cold Water Plenty of It

The St. Joseph Valley is noted for its abundant water supply in easy reach of all, yet so many suffer from a short supply. PRELIMINARY PLANS MADE FOR BIG OUTING

Dodge Department Heads Hold Meeting and Discuss This Year's Picnic—Date Not Decided.

A meeting of 13 out of 26 department heads of the Dodge Manufacturing Co. was held Tuesday afternoon and preliminary arrangements were made for the seventh annual Dodge picnic.

W. B. Hosford was elected chairman and W. L. Chandler secretary. Mr. Chandler was instructed to obtain several propositions from railroad officials and report at a meeting next week, when it is possible date and place may be decided upon.

Both depend on the arrangements made with the railroad officials. No committees have been appointed, but it is probable that an executive committee will be chosen then and later on committees on sports and entertainment will be appointed.

This will be the seventh annual picnic of the concern and it will probably be held some time in August. The event has become a big one for Mishawaka and not permitted to go, but also the members of their families and their friends. SHIMRON CLASS HOLDS BANQUET

Delicious Menu at Annual Event
Followed by Interesting Talks—Ralph Smith Orchestra Furnishes Music.

The Shimron Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal Memorial church held its sixth annual banquet in the entertainment rooms of the church Wednesday evening. The banquet was set for an earlier date, on the anniversary of the class founding, but was postponed on account of the Billy Sunday meetings.

A program of speeches followed the dinner and they were extremely interesting. Following is the program:
Music—Orchestra.
Greetings—Mr. Henwood.
"Shimron"—Mr. Moore.
Duet—"I Heard the Voice of Jesus"—Mr. Bridge, Mr. Dudding.
Investment and Returns—Dr. Edwards.

Sunday School By-products—Mr. Studley.
Billy Sunday Epigrams—Mr. Wilbur, Miss Albert and Mrs. Golden.

Past, Present, Future—Mr. Parks.
Mr. Henwood, who spoke, is president of the class, while the next speaker, Mr. Moore, is the past president. The talk given by Dr. Edwards was very interesting. He spoke of the life of Booker T. Washington, telling how the slave boy worked his way to the height of his race and said that the rise of the famous Negro was due to the opportunities given him by two college professors. The speaker said that the great Negro's fame was the return for the investment of these college professors.

Mr. Studley showed several by-products of the Sunday school, among them being punctuality, obedience, virtue and like virtues. Mr. Park's address, interspersed with several witty stories, was very interesting.

The motto of the Shimron Bible class is "Saved for Service." Its object is "helping to build up the Sunday school and the church." The conclusion is as follows: "I am, but one, but one I am, I cannot do much, but I can do something, what I can do I ought to do, what I ought to do I will do, God being my helper."

At the close of the banquet the entire assembly sang the well known hymn, "If Your Heart Keeps Right." Three out-of-town guests were present at the affair and were called upon by a few remarks by Mr. Henwood. Mrs. R. S. Grimes of Nebraska, Mrs. Margaret Stretch of North Carolina and Mrs. James Clemens of East Chicago.

Club Woman Tells Members How
One Merchant Attains Sanitary Conditions in Shop.

Mishawaka has at least one flyless meat market, according to a report made to the Women's club during a discussion on sanitary conditions in the city.

Favorable comment on this among the women may lead to a campaign to hunt up merchants who make special efforts to have sanitary conditions and to confine their patronage to them.

"I had often noticed that this market where I do my trading was always free from flies," said the member who told the story. "So I asked the proprietor how he managed it. And he explained that he gets up very early in the morning and kills all the flies that may have come in and then sweeps them out before his first customers arrive, so that the shop will look clean and attractive for his trade."

RESENTS ABUSE OF LINCOLN; FIGHT STARTS

enough in the hot sun to hunt up the headquarters' tent of Brig. Gen. Hunter Liggett and pay his respects. The gray haired old Confederate general who fought all through the war delighted the general of the newer army and his subordinate officers with his tales of war.

Here is another story that wandered into camp Wednesday and although the names are missing from the way the old veterans are showing their willingness to forget it seems entirely believable.

"Two veterans, one in blue, and the other in gray, met down town in Gettysburg. They literally fell in one another's arms, and after a tour of the town they hit upon a great scheme. They walked many good miles through the streets to a hardware, bought a hatchet and tramped a mile and a half to the battlefield. They hunted up the bloody angle, where Pickett's charge reached its crest, dug a hole in the ground there and with tears and more embraces, 'buried the hatchet.'"

Are Leaving Camp.
Thousands of veterans left the camp and Gettysburg Wednesday for their homes and thousands more probably will leave Thursday. The army officers in charge threw a cordon over the roads leading out Wednesday and examined the baggage. Many government blankets supplied for the encampment were discovered and removed.

So many cases have been reported of veterans losing their return railroad tickets and the consequent distress because of the inability to purchase transportation that Gov. Tener Wednesday notified Gen. Liggett, the United States officer in charge of the great camp, that the state of Pennsylvania will pay the return fare of all veterans who have lost their tickets, no matter in what part of the United States they reside.

One of the picturesque events of the celebration is scheduled for Thursday at the bloody angle, when the Philadelphia brigade of the Union army and survivors of Pickett's division will form on opposite sides of the stone wall where the charge stopped. They will charge as best they can with their burden of years, but when they reach the wall they will stop and shake hands. On this spot they expect to pick out a location for a $50,000 monument which they hope to have congress erect there.

Gen. Andrew J. West of Atlanta, who is to represent the governor of Georgia at Thursday's exercises, was presented with a silver loving cup today by the Georgia delegation. Judge George Hillier of Georgia made the presentation speech.

THOUGHT GYPSIES HAD STOLEN A BOY

ELKHART, Ind., July 2.—Acting upon the information furnished by Mrs. Robert Winston and other S. Second st. residents, police officials gave chase to a band of gypsies Wednesday afternoon, believing that they had taken a small boy along with them. The gypsy caravan stopped a few minutes at the corner of Harrison and Second sts. while some members of the band went to a drug store to get medicine for a sick child. When they passed down Second st., a little gypsy, a bit cleaner and better dressed, climbed onto the rear of one of the wagons, and was hauled inside. The police, the patrol and on motorcycles chased the caravan all the way to Adamsville, but found none but gypsies in the wagons.

WILL HEAR FARMERS.
Though 50 citizens of Elkhart—the number required by law—have signed petitions for the improvement of the Oakland av. and Prairie st. roads leading out of the city, the farmers along the routes will be given an opportunity to indorse the plan, and a meeting has been called for Saturday evening, at the Bunker Hill school house. The council was unable to select until the 28th ballot, using so much paper that it was necessary to appeal to the newspaper men in the room for the use of their note pads.

The meeting, which was a special one, was called to order at 7:10 o'clock with but five councilmen present, Messrs. Glides, Hartman, Eshelman, Helpin and Winey. On the first ballot, which was informal, Guy Lemmon received two votes, and Geo. Minnix, Emory Labelle and Fred Palmadier one each.
